Class History

We began the first of four of the most important years of our lives as Freshmen at Cory Rawson on September 7, 1964. At first we were amazed and befuddled, but soon we were in the swing of things. We looked up to our teachers and the upperclassmen to teach us, of course, the scholastic subjects, as well as how we were expected to act now as high-school students. Mrs. Zimmerman and Mr. Edie, our sponsors, were especially helpful and patient. On September 17 we assembled to hold our first class meeting. Ed Ridge, president; Dick Jones, vice-president; and Sue Loy, secretary were chosen as our officers. During the year we gained Ken Thomson to our class. He had a short stay though, as he, with Ed Thomson, left us before the year was ended.

Our Sophomore year was started with much more knowledge of high-school life than the year before. We welcomed John Hunter, Dick Dunn, Susan Benton, and Mitsy Courtney to our class during the year. We were sorry, though, to lose Judy Augsburger, Belinda Balister, Ruth Brewster, Dick Dunn, Larry Crist, Susan Benton, and Misty Courtney. Early in the year we once again voted for our officers. David Nessler, a Jeneranitte, was elected to be our president; along with Tom Moyer, the vice-president; Marilyn Niswander, the treasurer; and Anne Balmer, as the secretary. There were many highlights during our Sophomore year. Some of these were: choosing class rings, BVC football and track champs, the class dance, and many other things that stand out in individual memories. We were fortunate to have Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Davies guide us through this eventful year.

By the start of our Junior year we were a well acquainted and funloving group. We soon realized, with the help of our sponsors Mr. Rossman and Mr. Deeds, that this was to be a very important year. We very carefully selected our new class officers. The results showed Tom Moyer, as president; Dave Shafer, the vice-president; the treasurer was Dick Jones; and Carol Crew, the secretary. Our Junior year proved to be one of few dull moments. It started with the receiving of our class rings. Soon after, our football team clinched its second straight conference crown, and then the basketball team followed in its footsteps. We were proud to give a very successful play in "A Ready Made Family," under the guidance of Mrs. Wasbro and Mrs. Shindledecker. Ron Peterman and Jesse Gonozalas entered our class in 1967, but Jim Wilson had to leave us. The year was topped off as we presented the Seniors with the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme was "An Evening in Paris."

After a super summer we found ourselves on the last leg of our high-school career. We know we have a lot to look forward to, but maybe now for the first time we looked back to the memories of all the fun we have had together. Through a year of many decisions and plans we are ably guided by Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Clevidence. We regained Judy Augsburger to our class at the beginning of the year, but we lost Jesse Gonozalas. In our first meeting as Seniors we chose Mark Boehm to be our president. He is aided by vice-president David Nessler; secretary David Shafer; and the treasurer Dick Jones. For the third consecutive year our football team has won the BVC title. This, along with many other other honors that our class will gain during the year, will always be remembered. We are all looking forward to the Prom and Commencement which will cap off the four most important and delightful years of our lives.

Class Prophecy

In the year 1978, I decided to pursue the whereabouts of my old school mates, knowing that Dennis Gossman had attained the solemn duty of keeping personal files for all C-R graduates, I aimed my beginning first in his direction—Washington D.C. Upon arriving there, I came across a scene of a most shocking nature, which I watched through the window of a taxi driven by (of all people) David Shafer. Getting back to the scene, US Marshall Paul Fenstermaker was leading his deputies, Ron Peterman, Jack Cupples, Ray Scholes, and John Weihrauch against a mob of pacifists. I was unaware of the fact that Ed Ridge, Ron Reese, and Tom Moyer had turned Hippie. I soon became bored of the violence.

'Bout halfway to the White House, Jerry Cupples and Steve McFadden stopped me on the street, and asked if I had heard the news. Well of course I hadn't, so after Jerry got Steve to quit playing his guitar, they told me that Mike Carr fell from his job (washing windows). A moment of silence please. They went into further detail of the accident, and told how Frank Benjamin had run off the road in his Texaco wrecker, and apparently knocked the ladder from under Mike.

I finally arrived at the White House where I procured the files from Dennis' secretaries, Janet Motter and Darlene Rizor. They were well-dressed, as are all women of their status, in one of the latest styles by Chris Rodabaugh and Sue Baumgardner. As I was leaving the building, I witnessed, to my amazement, Secret Serviceman Mark Boehm protecting President Pam Frazier with his life. It was good to see a real man in action.

From the White House I decided to drop by the office of one of the world's famed psychiatrist, Mark Zimmerly. Walking down Pennsylvania Avenue, I noticed an attractive sign. It read; ROWER'S GROCERY & HARDWARE. I couldn't resist the urge to go in and purchase an item from the traditional 99¢ Special Box. While at the cash register, Mary called Sandy Crist and Pat Crawford out from the back room. They were dressed in dirty coveralls and had been working on a sump-pump all day long. Planning to continue my trip to Zimm's, I left the store in high spirits; but as soon as I stepped out the door, I was knocked to the sidewalk by a man on a 30-speed English Racer. I arose from the walk, and saw Dean Shilling waving to me as he sped on his way. Later, I learned that he won the Cross-Country Cycle Race. I once again started on my way, but had received a head injury from the mishap. The one person I never expected to see in Washington, John Hunter, insisted that I go to the hospital for a check-up. I consented, but if I had known he was going to drive me there in a beer truck, I'd have thought twice about the matter.

The hospital was a beautiful sight, and I was greeted there by an equally beautiful sight, Sue Loy and her assistant, Anne Holdren. They issued me a room in the cellar, notified the janitor to remove the guinea pigs, and sent me Mary Ann Mutchler who was taking the place of a recently discharged brain surgeon. She told me I would have to remain there for a few days for X-rays. After a few well-spent days in the hospital, I reached the office of that renowned psychiatrist. I got there just in time to see Bill Webb, Mark's only patient, depart from another of his fifteen-hour sessions. I'm sorry to say Mark wasn't very hospitable. He told me to leave after I talked to him for fifteen minutes. When I asked for the reason, he threw a tantrum, so I could do nothing but secure him in one of his straight jackets and be on my way.

I left Mark sane and went in search of a place to eat and rest. I checked my files and headed for the Caffeen Cafe owned by Carol Crew and Cathy Jones. They told me that their folk group had just finished recording for Nessler & Nessler, one of the largest record firms in the world. As I was going out the door, two unruly men crowded me back. Each had with him eight copies of the month's edition of PLAYBOY. I thought I recognized them from the files, and in short time named them as Randy Huffman and Bob Von Stein. They had previously been editors for the magazine but were fired for lack of concentration! By this time my legs were getting tired, so I hired Mike Romick to haul me around in a few Jet-Copter of his own design. Watching from high in the sky, I saw a traffic jam forming below. It seems as though Anne Balmer and Vicky Kidd, like any good teachers, were taking their classes on a trip. Skimming over the tops of tall buildings, I noticed a man on the street below. He was grinding away at an old organ while his monkey danced before him. As we moved in for a closer look, we waved to Dick Jones. I told him long ago that he was musically inclined, but I never thought it would come to this! Above the buildings again, we watched a crowd forming on a rooftop. It consisted of extremely popular personalities who had gathered to watch a new dancing technique being demonstrated by Cheryl Warren. As we flew over them, I greeted her with a hearty hello through the bull horn. The Washington Park next. No sooner had Mike landed his machine than I saw a Monk-robed Jane Green lying among the flowers holding some sort of holy ritual. I talked to her or an hour, but she never spoke. I became worried, for when we were in school, silence was not her code. I summoned a policewoman who responded instantly. She ran over to Jane and beat the living daylights out of her. When the officer got herself under control, she identified herself as Alma McClelland. Alma told me how she had taken riot training, but decided it wasn't her line of duty, so she transferred to the police force where she could use her skill on people like Jane, who just wasn't civil. I've come to the conclusion that some women are strange; some are fanatic. These two were excellent examples of both. For a change of scenery, I stopped at a drug store. Remembering the nicotine fit my dog had the other day, I thought I had better get some tobacco. At the pipe counter Karen Moore was demonstrating how to get the best smokes from cheap pipes. In front of me stood an old woman who appeared to be in great misery. In the course of purchasing a pipe, the woman revealed herself to be Judy Augsburg. She told me that Esther Bauman had rescued her from an uncharted island. Esther was in command of a platoon of WAVES consisting of Marilyn Niswander, Ann Searfoss, Martha Eck, and Kris Anderson. The latter was commander in chief of bulletin boards. I had completed my goal! Now I think it would have been better to write them letters instead of finding them. Nevertheless, classmates, I leave you with these thoughts to do with as you wish. Your classmate, Ken Warren.

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1968, Cory-Rawson High School, Hancock County, Ohio, being of sound mind and body, realizing the impossibility of forever keeping these things which we hold so dear, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills here-to-fore by us:

the Panthers recorded a turn in that department as against 22 for the losers.

A recovered fumble on the 22 in the third quarter set the stage for Liberty - Benton's came from behind win over Van Buren as the Eagles moved to the double stripe in 12 plays to break the 6-6 deadlock and wrap up the win.

Van Buren scored in the first quarter, driving 74 yards in 10 plays with Terry Baker going over from the one-yard stripe. Liberty - Benton tied the game in the third period as Tom Iles tossed to Mike Moye for yards and six points. After covering the fumble later in period, the Eagles moved to 15 and Jones hit Moye again the final yardage.

Van Buren had 166 on the field and 41 in the air on a 9 effort to tie the score.

The Vaulse Arcadia tilt saw about everything from a much down on the first play from scrimmage to a safety and a kickoff scoring return.

Al Russell opened the gates on the first play from scrimmage as he scampered 66 yards for Arcadia's first touchdown. Dennis Hill split the uprights for the PAT.

In the third frame, John Madway scored twice for the Redskins, once from the 12 and again from the eight. Arcadia then padded the score on a safety through the efforts of Jerry McIntire and Al Rader.

Arcadia's last TD was another by Russell from the 20, who then prevented a white-shirted senior halfback Dan Hughes from gathering in the kick and raced to the end zone.

Football Highlights

VAN BUREN

The seasons opener found the defending champion Hornets stinging Van Buren 37-0. Dave Nessler scored two TD's, with Mike Inniger passing to Larry Young for a TD and a conversion. Neil Schaller and Randy Bunn each scored 6 pointers with Schaller getting a conversion. Gary Heldman got 2 points on a safety and Tom Moyer kicked a P.A.Y. The player of the week was Tom Moyer.

PANDORA-GILBOA

A strong defense led by Tom Moyer, Larry Young, and Gary Heldman held P-G to a minus 10 yards rushing as C-R won 24-0. Mike Inniger passed to Kurt Beach for 2 TD's and Randy Huffman and Neil Schaller each lugged the leather over for 6 pointers. The player of the week was Mike Inniger.

VANLUE

C-R romped over Vanlue 58-6 as the tough Hornet defense held Vanlue to a minus 67 yards rushing. Dave Nessler scored 3 TD's and 2 conversions for 22 points. Larry Young, Neil Schaller, Randy Huffman, Kurt Beach, and Jon Cantwell all scored TD's with Young, Randy Bunn, and Ed Ridge tallying conversions. The Hornet defense was led by Bob von Stein and Larry Young. The player of the week was Larry Young.

ARCADIA

C-R blanked a determined Arcadia team 12-0 for number 24 in a row without a loss. Mike Inniger tossed to Kurt Beach for our first TD and Neil Schaller ran the other. Larry Young, Tom Moyer, and Ron Reese sparkled on defense while the offense was led by Dave Shafer, Bill Webb, and Steve Schaller. The players of the week were Dave Nessler and Neil Schaller.

LIBERTY-BENTON

The Eagles were flying high but the Hornets cut them down with a 24-0 victory. Neil Schaller scored 12 points, Dave Nessler 8, Mike Inniger 2 and Randy Bunn got 2 points on a safety. Ed Ridge excelled in his usual good faking and blocking. Randy Bunn was chosen as player of the week.

HARDIN-NORTHERN

Queen Anne and her court were treated to a Hornet Homecoming victory over H.H. by the score of 22-0. Dave Nessler, Neil Schaller and Larry Young each scored a TD with Nessler adding 2 conversions. Tom Moyer, Bill Webb and Mark Boehm were outstanding on the C-R line. Players of the week were Bill Webb and Gary Heldman.

LEIPSIC

The C-R eleven was in high gear as the Hornets swamped Leipsic 52-0, scoring 34 points in the first period. Neil Schaller got 2 TD's. Dave Nessler scored a TD and two conversions, Steve McLaughlin ran a 6 pointer and Bob von Stein recovered a fumble in the end zone for a TD. Mike Inniger passed to Larry Young for two TD's and to Kurt Beach for another. Player of the week was Larry Young.

ARLINGTON

The Hornets journeyed to Arlington for the game of the year and smashed the Red Devils 38-6. This clinched the third straight Hornet Blanchard Valley Conference Championship and game number 28 in a row without a loss. The Hornet offensive line worked to perfection. Neil Schaller raced for 3 TD's and a conversion, Dave Nessler legged a TD and 2 pointer. Mike Inniger passed to Larry Young for a TD and to Kurt Beach for a conversion. Nessler passed to Beach for the other 2 points. Neil Schaller was voted player of the week.

McCOMB

The C-R win streak ended at 28 as McComb upset the Hornets in mud and rain 12-0 to end the season.
